DATED : 11TH AUGUST, 2006.

P.C. :

Heard Ms. Shubhangi S. Kamble, Counsel for the petitioner.

2. On 3rd March, 1999 the petitioner was appointed on the post of Senior Manager in Nuclear Power Corporation of India Limited on probation. His performance during the probation period was not found satisfactory and, accordingly, his services were discontinued.

3. It is apparent from the available material that during the course of probation, the performance of the petitioner was found below satisfactory in the various areas. Some of these are thus:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| (1) | Promptness & Accuracy | Promptness has to improve Not very accurate regard-ing Rules. |
| (2) | Intelligence, Keenness industrious | Intelligent Average Keenness industrious. |
| (3) | Relationship with Fellow employees. | Has to improve. |

4. He was also found unable to handle the work of Senior Manager and understand the naunces of finance / procurement. Initially, extension was given to the petitioner during probation period for improvement in his all around performance but still no substantial improvement was found.

5. In this view of the matter, we find that the writ petition is without substance. It is dismissed in limine.
